

Constitution Day

Celebrated at Central University of Orissa
Date: 26 November, 2016

Central University of Orissa celebrated "Constitution Day" at its permanent campus, Sunabeda in a befitting manner. Prof. Sachidananda Mohanty, Vice-Chancellor of the University inaugurated the programme and delivered a Lecture on 'The importance of Fundamental Duties enshrined in the Constitution of India' as the Chief Guest.

Prof. Mohanty in his lecture put lights on the concept of duties and its importance in Indian culture as well as in the Indian Constitution and its importance for a democratic country like India. He stress on the importance of Fundamental Duties mentioned in the Constitution for the citizens of India. "Duty should be bound with ethical sense. We have to do our duty for ourselves. If you have taken a responsibility then you must have to be dutiful" he said. He also added "we are seeing so much hatred in our country these days. We became the slaves of the gadgets in present days. We must have to be east centric and should not look to west for everything". He talked about various rationality, individuality, universality and progress mentioned in the 'on library' of John Steward Mill. He advised the students to follow the path of the great leaders of the country and know their Fundamental Duties as well as their Fundamental Rights.

The Vice-Chancellor led the University to take pledge to construct a peaceful society and a developed nation.

Dr. Kapila Khemundu, Asst. Professor, Head I/c, Department of Sociology delivered the Introductory Address. Sushree Rojalin Mishra, student of the Dept. of Journalism and Mass Communication compeered the programme and propose vote of thanks. Students, faculty and staff were present in large numbers.
